The Fifty-five suspension lamp is a decorative ceiling lamp which is available in five sizes. It can be made in different sizes upon request. The standard colours are black and white. It can be made in any other colour upon request. The lamp has a minimal shade, separately coloured. It is possible to choose the colour of the textile cable from among 20 different colours. The basic version of a lamp has a GU10 LED lamp. Alternatively, there is a high output 350mA LED module with a choice of light angle and temperature colour, either with or without power supply.
